

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a blatant violation of the election law and other laws. Pre-empting other programs to air a purely political pro-bush agenda is broadcast at its worst.

Sinclair and other broadcasters are obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves and carry out practices such as these, it violates the fundamental fairness that ALL broadcasters should be compelled to exercise.

It is the duty of the FCC to enforce the laws and to insist on fundamental fairness. I now call respectfully on the FCC to do this.
Thank you.
